NOTE: For each talk the counselor will check the student on the next points in order on the Speech Counsel form, covering whatever is grouped together in a single Study in Qualified to Be Ministers. Whenever there are adjustments made in that procedure the counselor will note that in advance under "Remarks." The blank spaces on the form may be used for counseling students on points not listed, such as accuracy of statement, articulation, bearing, choice of words, grammar, mannerisms, relevancy and voice quality when the need arises.
