Re: Awake! being nested inside the public edition of The Watchtower

Dear Brothers:

An adjustment is being made to the way congregations will receive the Awake! and the public edition of The Watchtower in most language editions. Beginning with the September 2013 issues, the Awake! will be nested inside the public edition of The Watchtower. Currently, congregations are receiving two copies of the Awake! or two copies of the public edition of The Watchtower nested together.

In order to prepare the congregation for this transition, we ask that you please schedule an announcement to be made on the Service Meeting regarding this new way that the magazines will be received. This announcement should be made close to the time that the September 2013 issues arrive in your congregation, preferably just before they are set out on the counter for the publishers to obtain their personal copies for reading. The brother giving the announcement should demonstrate how the magazines can be presented in the ministry. The Awake! magazine can be pulled out of the Watchtower completely, or can be partially pulled out so that it is evident to the householder that he is receiving both the Watchtower and Awake! magazines.

Initially, group overseers should regularly mention this adjustment at the meetings for field service. The magazine servant can also provide kindly reminders when publishers are obtaining their magazines from the counter at the Kingdom Hall.

We appreciate your careful attention to this adjustment so that all will make good use of the printed editions of the magazines. Please be assured of our warm Christian love and greetings.

Your brothers,
Christian Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses
