Re: Cancellation of Pending Orders for New World Translation in Asante Twi

Dear Brothers:

We wish to inform you that the New World Translation in Asante Twi is out of stock and all pending orders for this item is being cancelled. If a congregation has a specific request for the New World Translation in Asante Twi, this should be reordered when it becomes available again in July 2014. However, we now have in stock the New World Translation in Akuapem Twi and congregations can send their requests for this item.

Please accept our warm Christian love and greetings.

Your brothers,

Christian Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses
