RE: New format for The Watchtower study edition

Dear Brothers:

We are happy to inform you that beginning with the October 15, 2014, issue, you will see some changes in the format of the study edition of The Watchtower.

The new layout follows the English simplified study edition layout. The pictures are larger, there are wider margins, and the “Some Expressions Explained” box will be included. You will also notice sections of larger text; called “blurb” that draw attention to key thoughts from the study.

Some of the articles contained in the standard study edition of The Watchtower may be missing and so you will need to read these articles in the English printed version, or by accessing them on jw.org.

The new layout will help us to get a better understanding of the main points in The Watchtower Study, whether on a personal or family level, or as we study the article at the weekly Watchtower Study. This new provision will assist us all as we entreat Jehovah: “Make me understand, that I may learn your commandments.”—Ps. 119:73.

We send our warm Christian love.

Your brothers,

Christian Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses

Blind note to body of elders:

Please have this read to the congregation at the first service meeting after it is received. All elders and especially The Watchtower Study conductors will want to familiarize themselves with the new features that will appear in the study edition of The Watchtower, and make good use of them, so that the congregations will benefit fully from this fine provision.—See also ks10 2:24, 25.
