Re: Watchtower Publications List

Dear Brothers:

We are writing to inform you of an adjustment that has been made in the production of the Watchtower Publications List (S-15). For many years, this was the only tool available for use by literature and magazine servants to determine which publications were available for request. However, it often became out-of-date soon after it was published. Therefore, effective immediately, the Watchtower Publications List will no longer be produced for our branch territory.

We encourage you to continue to take full advantage of jw.org for filling the literature and magazine needs for your congregation. It is a very reliable source for obtaining this information, and it is always up-to-date. Additionally, many congregations have Internet access, and the literature and magazine servants are able to access the latest information before and after the meetings.

Thank you for taking note of this simplification. We send our warm Christian love.

Your brothers,

Christian Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses
