Re: JW Broadcasting Monthly Programs

Dear Brothers:

On October 6, 2014, we began a trial arrangement to produce an English-language Internet television station called JW Broadcasting. Since then we have received an overwhelming amount of feedback from around the world expressing appreciation for this provision. We are pleased to inform you that the trial period is over, and the Governing Body has given approval to continue producing English-language programs. Additionally, we would like to inform you that starting with the May monthly program, JW Broadcasting will be translated into a number of other languages so that more of our brothers and sisters can benefit from this spiritually uplifting provision. A complete list of these languages will be posted on the information board after the meeting. JW Broadcasting can be accessed at tv.jw.org.

Can you assist others to benefit from this gift from Jehovah? It has been encouraging to hear reports of publishers who have Internet access inviting some in their congregation or field service group to their home to watch the monthly program. Elders in some congregations have made arrangements to view the one-hour program at the Kingdom Hall each month.

With Jehovah's support, we are confident that JW Broadcasting will continue to be a rich spiritual blessing for our worldwide brotherhood. Please be assured of our warm Christian love and greetings.

Your brothers,

Christian Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses

PS to coordinator of the body of elders:
