Re: Orchestral Accompaniment for Singing at Congregation Meetings

Dear Brothers:

In April 2015, it was announced that orchestral recordings should accompany singing at our congregation meetings and that as groups of recordings were completed they would periodically be released on jw.org. We are pleased to announce that a new batch of 80 orchestral recordings is now available for use at congregation meetings. In due time, additional orchestral recordings will be released to replace the remaining piano recordings.

A comprehensive zip file containing all 150 songs will be posted on jw.org under the “Documents” tab in the “Event Media” section. All recordings currently being used to accompany singing at congregation meetings should be replaced with this new compilation. As previously directed, please assign a brother to confirm periodically that the latest recordings have been downloaded and are available for use.

We send our warm Christian love.

Your brothers,

Testigos Cristianos de Jehová
