Re: Meeting Times and Locations for Groups and PREGROUPS

Dear Brothers:

The “Find a Meeting of Jehovah’s Witnesses” page on jw.org can now display meeting schedules for foreign-language groups and pregroups. We hope that this adjustment will be particularly beneficial during the upcoming Memorial season.

Meeting Times: To specify the meeting schedule for a group or pregroup hosted by your congregation, a brother assigned the “Enter Reports and Profile” role should go to the “Congregation” tab and select the “Meeting Times” link under the “Maintain Profile” section. For both the midweek and weekend meetings, he can indicate whether the group or pregroup has no weekly meeting, has a weekly meeting at the same time as the host congregation, or has a weekly meeting at a different time.

Memorial Time: If a group or pregroup hosted by your congregation will be holding a separate Memorial observance, the time and location for that Memorial can be entered on jw.org. To enter this information, a brother assigned the “Enter Reports and Profile” role should go to the “Congregation” tab and select the “Memorial Time” link under the “Maintain Profile” section. The “Memorial Time” page has the same features and requirements as the “Meeting Times” page outlined above.

If your congregation hosts any groups or pregroups, please immediately enter the meeting schedule of the group or pregroup on jw.org and, if appropriate, enter a Memorial time and location.

We send our warm Christian love and best wishes.

Your brothers,

Christian Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses
