Re: Donations to “Jehovah’s Witnesses of India” by Indian Passport Holders

Dear Brothers:

As you may be aware, the work in India depends on the support of those who are Indian citizens to care for special pioneers, the translation and printing of literature, and theocratic construction projects. At times, Indian citizens living abroad have inquired how they could support the work in India. We are pleased to inform you that publishers with Indian passports are able to do so using the website <https://www.jwindiagift.org>.

To make a donation, the donor will need to have an account with a bank listed on the website. Alternatively, the donor can contribute by sending the India branch a cheque/draft in favor of “Jehovah’s Witnesses of India,” payable at Bangalore, India. The donor should attach a photocopy of the first page of their Indian passport, which identifies him or her as an Indian citizen.

We would be very grateful if you could inform any publishers in your congregation with an Indian passport of the arrangements outlined in this letter. If a publisher wishes to make a donation using <https://www.jwindiagift.org>, please provide a copy of the enclosure for their reference.

We take this opportunity to express our appreciation as you continue to contribute towards the advancement of the Kingdom work in India.

Your brothers,

Watchtower B. & J. Society
