Re: Packing of Literature in Cartons

Dear Brothers:

We appreciate your efforts to care for the publications that are sent to the congregations for our spiritual upkeep and our preaching work to draw honest-hearted ones into the earthly part of Jehovah's organization.

At this time we would like to provide this important reminder, that any time you receive the publications, kindly check if the cartons arrive in good condition. In handling and transporting the cartons of literature to the congregations, please let us know if there are any challenges. We want to ensure that literature and magazines are received in good condition and shall therefore appreciate your response whenever there are problems in handling the cartons.

Please accept our warm Christian love and best wishes.

Your brothers,

Christian Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses
