TO ALL BODIES OF ELDERS

Subject: Memorial: Cancellation of contracts with rented venues

Dear Brothers:

The branch office will provide you with further direction on how to meet together for the Memorial by videoconference. If any congregation has rented any venue for the memorial, we recommend that you contact property owner in order to know if the reservation is still in effect or is already cancelled. If it is already cancelled, the owner should return to you the money, provided that you did not sign a contract indicating otherwise.

If they indicate that the event has not been cancelled and they are not inclined to cancel it, then is better to wait to see if the State of Emergency or other future safety measure will prohibit large meeting events. In that event, contact the property owner and explain that due to circumstances beyond our control the event should be cancelled and the payment should be returned.

If they refuse to do so or demand a large amount of money as a penalty, please contact the Legal Department by letter, explaining the situation and providing all available documents. On the other hand, if they propose to keep the money that they already have received from you as a reservation for the next year, then the body of elders should determine whether to accept this proposal. If you decide to accept that offer, we recommend that you sign a new contract with this change.

We sincerely appreciate your cooperation in these and other matters, which contributes to unity.—
Ephesians 4:16.

Please receive our greetings and Christian love.

Your brothers,

Testigos Cristianos de Jehová
